Colonel Leo P. Geary
AFIGO-S
The Pentagon

Dear Leo:

With the tremendous expansion over the last year in the program in which you and I are concerned, there have been many occasions when things were not coordinated as well as we both would have liked. The problem of keeping each other informed is one that worries me and is complicated by the fact that you and I, personally, are becoming bogged down with many new responsibilities.

I don't have any real solution for this problem at the present time. I have considered designating a special project officer whose primary duty would be to act as liaison officer between our two offices, but right now I don't have the body to fill this slot. In the meantime, I would like to invite you or any of your staff to attend my staff meetings or visit any office in my organization at any time you may find convenient. All our activities and offices are always open to you and your staff.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jack
